

Bitcoin for Institutions is for organizations that seek to 1) understand that the strongest individuals will value bitcoin higher than the strongest institutions and, over time, will outbid them for it, and 2) understand the risks of the failure to grasp how much and why bitcoin is valued by individuals. This book aims to give people at these institutions a road map towards owning and utilizing an extraordinarily powerful and emerging form of capital.